Briefly describe your life goals/aspirations:

After high school, I want to go to college (my top choice right now is UNC-Chapel Hill) and study political science. I'd like to do political science research with a professor there also, as I took AP Research this year and was very interested in it. While in college, I'd also like to look into studying abroad either in Europe or Asia (Chapel Hill offers study abroad for law in Singapore, which I'm interested in). After graduating from college, I plan to go to law school and become a lawyer. As of now, I'm thinking of doing family law, especially adoption/foster care cases, but I'm not decided yet. Outside of academic and career aspirations though, I would like to get married and have children one day and settle down in either Tennessee or North Carolina. I'd like to take a road trip through the US and travel to Europe one day too.

To Whom It May Concern:

It is an honor to write on behalf of Anna Gibbs, a student whom I taught in my AP Research course. In the year that I have known her, Anna has consistently demonstrated her diligence, motivation, ability to think critically, and leadership.

In AP Research, students must select a topic and conduct their own independent research project, culminating in a 5,000-word paper and 20-minute presentation and oral defense. Anna chose to explore the effect of gender stereotypes on why women leave engineering. Though I initially had concerns about her ability to recruit participants, Anna soon eased my worries with her dedication and diligence. Anna carefully reviewed existing literature to develop her final research question, then chose an interview method. To recruit participants, she contacted an engineer she knew, then used snowball sampling. Anna protected the anonymity of her participants and demonstrated incredible respect for them. This compassionate approach is apparent in her final research paper; each participant's testimony is objectively represented throughout the results and analysis sections.

At every obstacle, Anna persevered. While the majority of her classmates needed constant coaxing to complete their projects, Anna relied on her intrinsic motivation, demonstrating a maturity far beyond her years. A leader in the classroom, she helped encourage her classmates through the process through her example and by providing detailed, thoughtful peer reviews. Her generosity towards others is truly exceptional; she never hesitates to help others, even if it creates more work for her.

Though she has a challenging academic schedule, Anna is involved in extracurricular activities that benefit the school and community. As a member of the Spanish Honor Society and Senior Board, Anna tutors students, volunteers at local events, and initiates service projects at the school, such as planting and maintaining flower beds. She currently serves as the secretary for the Key Club and also mentors incoming freshmen.

Based on my experience as Anna's teacher, I strongly believe that she would be an ideal youth representative for the Farragut Town Committee. Anna ranks in the top students whom I have ever taught in my twenty-one-year career, not only in her academic performance, but also her character. She is truly exceptional and I know that she will flourish in this opportunity. If you have any questions about her, please contact me. I enthusiastically recommend Anna Gibbs.

Sincerely,

Kelly A. Loveday

To the Farragut Parks and Athletics Youth Representative Selection Committee:

I am writing a letter of recommendation for Jack Bukovitz. He is currently a student in my Honors Anatomy & Physiology course at Farragut High School. He is very punctual, respectful and polite. He engaging very well with his classmates and can work independently.

Jack is a starting member of the FHS boys soccer team, the DECA Club and the National Honor Society. He has aspirations of majoring in sports management and sports science. Small business management and entrepreneurship are other possibilities. His serving on the Parks and Athletics Committee would offer visions of what a person majoring in the above areas may confront in the "real world".

I have no reservation about Jack's ability to meet all the responsibilities required to be a stellar youth representative on your committee. His character will make both Farragut High School and the Farragut community very proud and hopeful for the future leaders in our society. Please seriously consider his application for this position. You will be very pleased with his level of commitment to excellence.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Respectfully,

To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this letter of recommendation for Katelyn Bruce as she is applying to participate in the Town of Farragut Tourism Board. While serving as principal at Farragut High School, I have gotten to know Katelyn as a student, leader, and all-around great young lady.

Katelyn has led her fellow classmates as the freshman SGA president, and sophomore SGA president. She has also participated in track, musical theater, and other school clubs and events. She has a heart to serve others and to improve her school and community. This is evident in her many hours of community service through Fostering Hope of TN and the Knoxville Urban League.

I highly recommend Katelyn to serve on the Farragut Tourism Board.

Letter of recommendation for Sarah Lynn

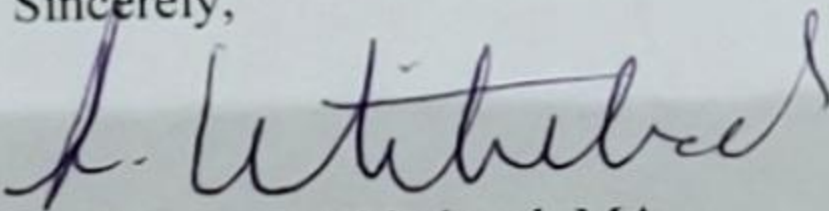

It is an honor to write this letter of recommendation for Ms. Sarah Lynn. I first met Sarah in the fall of 2021 while I was teaching Spanish at Farragut High School in Knoxville, Tennessee. She is a pleasure to have in the classroom and both motivated and dedicated to succeed in her academic endeavors.

I first met Sarah in my Spanish 2 Honors class this spring 2022 after she had Spanish 1 over a year prior. She was very nervous about speaking the language again after so much time off, but her progress over the course has been excellent. She has made significant improvement in both her writing and speaking abilities, which is impressive in a high school Spanish course. Sarah makes a concerted effort to speak only Spanish in class, and her dedication to speaking the language in the class setting influences the other students in the class, encouraging them to imitate her example. Sarah always comes to class not only prepared but also having already organized her ideas and formulated questions about the assignments. Sarah is a quiet leader, not dominating the classroom conversation, but quietly redirecting partners to focus on their work or helping her classmates when they struggle.

Because of her years of playing youth softball and her recent experience running track for Farragut High School, Sarah would be an excellent voice on the Parks and Athletics Council. She is quietly confident and respectful. Her experience playing in and for Farragut teams will be a huge bonus to the council.

In sum, Sarah would be an outstanding youth representative for the town of Farragut on the Parks and Athletics Council, because of her work ethic, motivation, and leadership skills. Her attention to details and kindness of character have stood out to me in particular. Therefore, it is a pleasure to support Ms. Lynn in her academic pursuits, and I wholeheartedly endorse her application.

Sincerely,

Ms. Rebecca Whitehead, MA

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The intent of this correspondence is to recommend Ty Finnegan for Youth Representative for the Parks and Athletic Council. As an Accounting I teacher at Farragut High School, it has been my pleasure to have Ty as a student. Ty is one of the most caring students I have taught in my career.

As a student, Ty has displayed many skills that make him stand out among other students. He is extremely meticulous in completing his class assignments. He is a hard-working student and his efforts are reflected in his extremely high grade in Accounting I. He is driven to understand class material to a deeper level and is great about asking questions that will start a class discussion. Understanding new material comes very easy to Ty. He is also very helpful to his classmates who are struggling in class. He has become a student leader in my class whom students go to for assistance and feedback.

Ty's personal strengths are as impressive as his intellectual accomplishments. He is selfless, compassionate and outgoing. Ty brings a great sense of humor to class. His cheerful nature and openness to feedback allows him to continually grow as a learner, an impressive strength that will benefit him greatly as he attends college. He makes the classroom a fun and exciting place to be.

Ty is also involved in extracurricular activities at Farragut High School. He is a member of the National Honor Society as well as the Spanish Honor Society. Ty is also an active member of DECA. As a member of DECA, Ty competes at local and state competitions. This has given him excellent experience working with his peers. Ty is a member of Project U and SGA. Ty is very well rounded and is continually doing his part to make Farragut a better place!

I am glad that I have had the opportunity to teach Ty. He has demonstrated excellence in all that he puts his mind to. I highly recommend Ty Finnegan for this wonderful opportunity.

Sincerely,

Carrie Everett

Briefly describe your life goals/aspirations:

In the future, I want to do things that make me truly happy. I know that I want to attend a university somewhere because I have a true love of learning. I enjoy going to school and learning about Song China in history, the properties of pH in chemistry, Newton's laws in physics, Jacques-Louis David in art, and Andy Weir in English. After college, I hope to find a job where I can use these interests to provide a stable income whilst benefiting those around me who are in need. I may not know what this career path looks like yet, but I know I will learn this in time.

To Whom It May Concern:

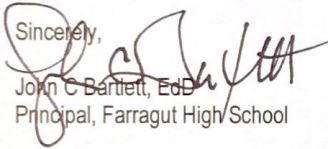

Please accept this letter of recommendation for William Cabaniss as he is applying to participate in the Town of Farragut Education Committee. While serving as principal at Farragut High School, I have gotten to know William as a student, leader, and all-around great young man.

William is one of those young men that makes the world better simply because of his presence and ingenuity. Rarely do young people see a need and step into the need in a way that William has done. Over the past several years, William has started his own company, Vanilla Feeds Tomorrow, giving all the profits to Second Harvest. To date, William has raised tens of thousands of dollars to feed the hungry in our community.

William is a leader in our school also. He is active in SGA, National Honors Society, on the track team, and serving in our community in multiple other ways. William has a good business mind, he is creative, articulate, enterprising, and most importantly aware of the world around him.

I highly recommend William to serve on the Education Committee.

Sincerely,

John C Bartlett, EdD
