REPORT TO THE BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN

PREPARED BY: Trevor Hobbs

SUBJECT: Community Property Maintenance/Code Enforcement

INTRODUCTION: The amendments of this ordinance provide additional clarity in definitions, consistency in servicing notices of violation and remedial action upon non-compliance, and address elements of the current regulations that are not consistent with State Law.

BACKGROUND: The Town has adopted for many years the International Property Maintenance Code (IPMC) in addition to a number of free-standing municipal ordinances dealing with similar nuisances. Inconsistencies between the IMPC and municipal ordinances have made it difficult for staff to enforce these provisions.

The proposed amendments to Chapter 14 of the Farragut Municipal Code address the challenges that have prevented effective enforcement and will allow for a greater degree of automation and consistency in our approach.

DISCUSSION: First, amendments to the definitions expands the concept of "Litter" to include "Junk", a term already present in the IMPC. Second, in all instances dealing with administration and enforcement, the proposed amendment adds language that authorizes the "Town Administrator or his designee" to administer and enforce the provisions of the chapter. Third, the proposed amendment creates consistency in the amount of time granted in the warning notice period prior to a court citation being issued. Fourth, the proposed amendments create a consistent procedure for issuing a warning notice of violation and to whom it can be provided. Lastly, the proposed amendments remove elements of the existing ordinances, which, following past changes in state law, are no longer within the legal authority of municipalities.

Staff seek the Board's guidance on these proposed amendments, the degree of proactivity desired, and any additional nuisances the Board desires that the town regulate.

AGENDA NUMBER: V1. B.

MEETING DATE: December 12, 2019

REPORT TO THE BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN

PREPARED BY: William E. McKelvey, Public Works Director

SUBJECT: Approval of Bid for Contract No. 2020-11 Campbell Station Wall Renovation

INTRODUCTION: The purpose of this agenda item is to consider bids and award Contract 2020-11 Campbell Station Wall Renovation to the chosen contractor.

BACKGROUND: The wall on Campbell Station Road was built with a lightweight stone veneer finish that did not stay attached and was deteriorating. The public works department removed the stone until the Board of Mayor and Aldermen selected a new finish of brick and stone columns for the wall.

This project was initially bid out for a single contractor to manage the project and those bids were subsequently rejected as the low bid was 150% over budget. The public works department then re-bid this project for materials and labor separately and will act as the general contractor to get a much more competitive cost and keep the project under budget.

DISCUSSION: Attached are two bids which were received on November 26, 2019. These bids are for the labor portion of installing the bricks and stone to the wall on Campbell Station Road. We recommend awarding the contract to Pratt Masonry based on their low bid of $77,000.00.

AGENDA NUMBER VI.G.

MEETING DATE DECEMBER 12, 2019

REPORT TO THE BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN

PREPARED BY: David Smoak, Town Administrator

SUBJECT: Approval of a Professional Services Agreement for Legislative Services

INTRODUCTION: The purpose of this agenda item is to approve a professional services agreement between the Town of Farragut and Laine Communications, Inc. for legislative services.

BACKGROUND: Over the past several years, municipalities across Tennessee have seen numerous laws enacted that have reduced their ability to plan for future growth (annexation, vested rights, etc.) or rely on stable revenue sources to provide services (Hall Tax elimination). There are also hundreds of bills filed each year that require significant time to review and monitor during the legislative session that may affect the operations for the Town of Farragut. This ongoing effort requires a tremendous amount of staff time and resources, especially as the legislative session draws to a close.

DISCUSSION: Laine Communications has locations in both Farragut and Nashville and has been in government relations for over 30 years. They have represented the coal mining and Tennessee Oil and Gas associations and have represented the Town of Farragut over the past four years on legislative matters.

Laine Communications will be responsible for doing research of all applicable bills that are filed that affect municipalities, developing strategies regarding legislative issues, arrange meetings with legislators, provide committee testimony and monitor all legislation, and provide weekly updates to the Town of Farragut during the legislative session.

The proposed agreement would be for a not to exceed amount of $25,000 annually for the first two years of the contract, with the third year of the contract increasing to $30,000.

TOWN OF FARRAGUT

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made on or about the ____ day of _____, 2019 (the "Effective Date") by and between Town of Farragut ("Client") and Laine Communications ("Contractor") to secure professional services for the assignment described as follows:

Project: Legislative and Monitoring Services

Description of Project: General Consulting, Legislative Affairs and Monitoring Services

1. Professional Services. Contractor agrees to perform the following Basic Services under this Agreement for a three (3) year period (the "Term") commencing on the Effective Date:

See Exhibit A to this Agreement for a description of Basic Services.

2. Compensation. Client shall compensate Contractor for the Basic Services as follows: A fee of $25,000 per year for calendar years 2020 and 2021 and a fee of $30,000 for calendar year 2022 of the Term commencing on the Effective Date. The fee shall be paid in equal quarterly installments of $6,250 for calendar years 2020 and 2021 and $7,500 for calendar year 2022 payable in advance upon receipt of Contractor's invoice. If the Client requests Contractor to provide services that will exceed or are fundamentally different than the scope of the Basic Services as described in the sections of Exhibit A entitled "Methodology" and "Communications" (the "Additional Services"), then the parties shall negotiate the additional terms and conditions that would govern the provisions of the Additional Services, including any additional fee payable for those services. Prior to providing any Additional Services for which it expects additional compensation, Contractor shall advise the Client why it believes a request for the services exceed or are different than the Basic Services, and will also make a proposal in writing to Client of the terms upon which it would be willing to provide such services. If the parties reach an agreement concerning the terms and conditions upon which the Additional Services will be provided by Contractor, an addendum shall be prepared and approved in writing by both parties in order to memorialize the basis upon which the Additional Services will be provided and how and when Contractor will be compensated for same.

3. Schedule. Contractor shall begin work upon notification of approval of this Agreement. The schedule for the various meetings and presentations as outlined in the Basic Services shall be agreed upon by the Contractor and the Town Administrator as work progresses.

4. Invoicing and Payments. Invoices or payment requests shall be submitted to the Client no more than quarterly and shall include such information, documentation or data as the Town Administrator may require including, but not limited to, the amount and breakdown of the payment requested, the period covered by the request, and the work performed during the period covered by the payment request. After review, the Town Administrator will indicate his approval of the payment request, or shall explain to Contractor, in writing, his reasons for not approving any portion or all of the request, and authorize payment of the amount approved. In the event the Town Administrator does not approve any portion of a payment request, and has communicated the reasons to Contractor, Contractor will then take the necessary action to satisfy the reasons for non-approval and resubmit the payment request. Client shall endeavor to remit payment of payment requests or portions thereof which are approved by the Town Administrator within thirty (30) days of receipt by Client.

5. Time. Contractor will perform its services in a timely manner commensurate with the exercise of due professional care.

6. Suspension of Services. If Client fails to pay any invoice when due or otherwise is in material breach of this Agreement, Contractor may, at its sole discretion, suspend performance of services upon five (5) days' written notice to Client. Contractor shall have no liability to Client and Client agrees to make no claim for any delay or damage as a result of such suspension, unless (i) the Town Administrator has refused to approve payment, (ii) his reasons are justified pursuant to this Agreement, and (iii) Contractor has failed to satisfy the reasons as required by Paragraph 4 hereof. Upon cure of the cause of a justified suspension, Contractor shall resume services within a reasonable time, and there shall be equitable adjustments of the project schedule and fees to reflect the effects of such suspension, if such adjustments are deemed reasonable and appropriate by the parties.

7. Standard of Care. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any other document describing the services produced by Client, Contractor shall perform its services in accordance with the standard of professional care ordinarily exercised under similar circumstances by reputable members of its profession in the same locality at the time the services are provided. Beyond the foregoing and unless otherwise provided herein or in other documents produced, generated or provided by Contractor, no warranty, expressed or implied, is made or intended by Contractor. The parties further agree that Contractor is not a fiduciary of Client.

8. Termination. The obligation to provide further services under this Agreement may be terminated with or without cause by either party upon ten (10) days' written notice to the other party. On termination by either Client or Contractor, Client shall pay Contractor all amounts due for any services performed to the date of termination (plus all reimbursable expenses incurred) as Contractor's sole and exclusive remedy, subject to any setoffs to which the Client is entitled as a result of Contractor's failure to perform as required by this Agreement.

9. Reuse of Documents. All documents, including drawings, specifications, and reports, prepared by Contractor pursuant to this Agreement are instruments of professional service and shall become the property of the Client. They are not intended or represented to be suitable for reuse by Client or others for additions or modifications of the Project or on any other project. Any reuse without written consent, verification or adaption by Contractor for the specific purposes intended shall be at Client's sole risk and without liability or legal exposure to Contractor. Any such verification and adaption will entitle Contractor to further compensation at rates to be agreed upon by Client and Contractor.

10. [Intentionally omitted.]

11. [Intentionally omitted.]

12. Risk Allocation. In recognition of the relative risks, rewards, and benefits of the Project to both Client and Contractor, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the parties agree to allocate the risks such that Contractor's total liability to Client for any and all injuries, claims, losses, expenses, damages, and/or claim expenses arising out of Contractor's services under this Agreement from any cause or causes shall not exceed the amount of Contractor's fee, or One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), or the amount of insurance coverage Contractor has, or is required to have, covering the risk or claim that is the basis for the injury, claim, loss, expense or damages, recovery for which is sought, whichever is greater. This limitation shall apply regardless of the cause of action or legal theory pled or asserted.

13. Dispute Resolution. It is agreed that all claims, disputes, or other matters in question arising out of or related to this Agreement shall be submitted to nonbinding mediation before any legal proceedings is commenced. The parties shall equally bear the fees and expenses charged by the mediator.

14. [Intentionally omitted.]

a. The Contractor shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Client, its officers, employees and agents from any and all liabilities which may arise or be claimed against the Client, its officers, employees and agents or any third party for any and all lawsuits, claims, demands, losses or damages alleged to have arisen from an act or omission of the Contractors, its employers, agents or contractors in performance of this Agreement or from the Contractor's failure to perform this Agreement using ordinary care and skill, except where such injury, damage, or loss was caused by the sole negligence of the Client, its agents or employees.

b. The Contractor shall save, indemnify and hold the Client harmless from the cost of the defense of any claim, demand, suit or cause of action made or brought against the Client alleging liability referenced above, including, but not limited to, costs, fees, attorney fees, and other expenses of any kind whatsoever arising in connection with the defense of the Client; and the Contractor shall assume and take over the defense of the Client in any such claim, demand, suit, or cause of action upon written notice and demand for same by the Client. The Contractor will have the right to defend the Client with notice and demand for same by the Client. The Contractor will have the right to defend the Client with counsel of its choice that is satisfactory to the Client and the Client will provide reasonable cooperation in the defense as the Contractor may request. The Contractor will not consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to an indemnified claim without the prior written consent of the Client, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Client shall have the right to participate in the defense against the indemnified claims with counsel of its choice at its own expense.

c. The Contractor shall save, indemnify and hold Client harmless and pay judgments that shall be rendered in any such actions, suits, claims or demands against Client alleging liability referenced above.

d. The indemnification and hold harmless provisions of this Agreement shall survive termination of the Agreement.

16. Miscellaneous.

a. The Contractor will not assign or transfer any interest in this Agreement without obtaining the prior written approval of the Client.

b. The Contractor will not enter into a subcontract for any of the services performed under this Agreement without obtaining the prior written approval of the Client.

c. The contract between the parties consists of this Agreement, its attachments, any written request for services issued by Client and any response thereto made by Contractor, including any addenda thereto. To the extent there is a conflict between the terms of any of the documents that constitute the contract between the parties, the terms that are most specific to the matter in dispute shall govern over the more general. In the event the conflicting terms cannot be characterized as specific vs. general, then the terms that provide the greater benefit to the Client and/or impose the greater obligation on the Contractor shall control.

d. This Agreement may be modified only by a written amendment or addendum that has been executed and approved by the appropriate officials shown on the signature page of this Agreement.

e. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be unenforceable or invalid, such determination will not affect the validity of the other provisions contained in this Agreement. Failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement does not affect the rights of the parties to enforce such provision in another circumstance, nor does it affect the rights of the parties to enforce any other provision of this Agreement at any time.

f. In the event legal action is necessary to enforce the terms of the contract between the parties, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recovery of its attorney's fees, court costs, and other expenses of the legal action.

g. In the performance of this contract, Contractor will comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules, regulations and orders of local, state and federal governments, including, but not limited to, the President's Executive Order No. 11246 and 11375, which prohibit discrimination in employment regarding race, color, religion, sex or national origin, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Copeland Anti-Kick Back Act, the Contract Work Hours and Safety Standards Act, Section 402 of the Vietnam Veterans Adjustment Act of 1974, Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, all of which are herein incorporated by reference.

h. This Agreement will be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Tennessee.

Proposal of Lobbying Services for the Town of Farragut

Laine Communications is pleased to provide this proposal for lobbying services to the Town of Farragut.

As a proven leader in Tennessee government relations and with more than 30 years of lobbying experience, the Laine Communications team has the high-level access, tested experience and knowledgeable insight that Farragut needs to accomplish its legislative goals.

Specializing in political consulting and advocacy, Laine Communications has earned a reputation in Nashville as a highly-effective, influential firm. We have successfully defended clients, promoted industries and negotiated compromises to reach our clients' regulatory and legislative goals.

Leveraging our in-depth knowledge of state government, strong political relationships and strategic communications, Laine Communications builds each legislative strategy from the ground up. We will help you formulate a plan, identify strong supporters and advance your cause in the Tennessee General Assembly and throughout state government.

Below you will find more information about Laine Communication's qualifications, communications plan, track record, core team of employees and an in-depth look at how we produce successful outcomes for our clients.

QUALIFICATIONS

Laine Communications is a full-service government relations firm with locations in Nashville and Knoxville, Tennessee. We have been a registered business in Tennessee since 1994. Our full-time lobbyists bring a wide range of skills to the world of advocacy, which has allowed our small team to produce big results.

For more than 30 years, the staff at Laine Communications has been crafting messages aimed at the public, the media and elected officials. Using our backgrounds in journalism, economics and promotion, we know how to blend the dynamics of the political system, the complexity of bureaucracy and the need of our clients in order to effectively advocate at all levels of government.

The team at Laine Communications is active in the Tennessee Lobbyists Association where we focus on skill building, professional growth and relationship development. We are also members of the National Mining Association and active participants in State Coal Executives Committee where we interact with other mining trade association leaders to discuss legislative and regulatory developments, share ideas about membership initiatives and network with other active mining state. Laine Communication is also involved with the Industrial Minerals Association of North America.

Lobbying Methodology

Navigating government can be difficult. An essential component of success will be formulating and executing a strong plan of action prior to the beginning of the legislative session. Working closely with the Town of Farragut, Laine Communications will build a unique legislative strategy to accomplish all of your identified goals.

1. Background Research: Working with the Town of Farragut, Laine Communications will begin the process by making sure we understand your issues inside and out. Additionally, we will identify filed and proposed legislation and regulations that may impact the Town. Then, we will work to find politically-feasible solutions to the problems and help you prioritize the possibilities.
2. Strategy Development: In this stage, Laine Communications will develop a plan of action in conjunction with the Town of Farragut team to address key legislative and regulatory issues. We will prepare materials – fact sheets, background information, statistics, pictures, etc. – to use in our lobbying efforts. We will also identify potential key partners and conduct outreach with them.
3. Implement Legislative Strategy: Using our in-depth knowledge of the legislature and state agencies, Laine Communications will begin to implement the Town's chosen government relations strategy. This part of the process includes working with legislators, their staff and the relevant committees to achieve the desired outcome in the General Assembly. Depending on the situation, this phase may also include drafting legislative proposals, recruiting legislative sponsors and/or writing legislative amendments. We will also utilize key partnerships and other advocates, such as other municipalities and professional associations, to identify allies and begin targeting dissenters.
4. Arrange Meetings: At key times throughout the session, it will be important for officials from the Town of Farragut to personally interact with legislators. Laine Communications will identify the legislators who would most benefit from direct engagement, arrange the meetings on behalf of Farragut and accompany you to the meetings in Nashville. We will also provide follow up strategies based on the meetings and in line with our overall legislative plan.
5. Committee Testimony: Testifying at a formal committee meeting is a direct way to officially voice concern or support during the legislative process. Laine Communications will seek opportunities for Farragut officials to participate in committee meetings via testimony. We will assist in the development of prepared remarks and leave behinds for committee members. When it's not possible for Farragut officials to testify or when something comes up unexpectedly, Laine Communications will act as your voice in Nashville – we will testify on behalf of the Town's position, take questions and provide answers during committee hearings.
6. Follow up Monitoring: Laine Communications will continue to monitor and follow up with any governmental agency involved in the issues important to Farragut even after the legislative session adjourns. We will make sure that any activity that follows a legislative vote will be in the city's interest and also continue to advise the Town on the best method for handling these after-session activities.

CLIENT COMMUNICATIONS PLAN

The legislative process is complicated and can move quickly once session convenes. Laine Communications knows how important it is for Town officials to remain up-to-date on everything that is happening in Nashville and what issues are affecting you. It is our goal to maintain a close working relationship with Town officials throughout the year in order to preemptively address issues and get out ahead of any upcoming problems.

Prior to the convention of the General Assembly, Laine Communications will work with the Town of Farragut's legislative oversight team to provide updates on filed legislation, brewing issues and counsel on strategies moving forward. We will address these issues through emails, phone calls and face-to-face meetings.

During the legislative session, we will maintain continuous communications with the Town on the identified priority issues. Laine Communications will send written weekly updates on the status of bills we are following, meetings that we have taken and their outcome, summaries of committee hearings, rumors and other pertinent information. As the bills pick up momentum, Laine Communications will provide updates as frequently as needed via text, phone calls or emails to the Town's legislative oversight staff.

In the event an issue requires an immediate decision, Laine Communications will contact the Town as soon as possible to discuss options and recommendations. Our goal will always be to give the Town of Farragut as much lead time as possible to weigh out decisions on legislation affecting its citizens and operations.

Laine communications is also available for conference calls or in-person meetings as necessary prior to, during and after the legislative session.

EXPERIENCE

Laine Communications found early success representing the nuclear industry in Oak Ridge at the state and federal levels. Working with regulators, legislators, the public and citizens' groups, Laine Communications spent ten years lobbying at the state and federal level for the industry's three major nuclear contractors.

In 2008, Laine Communications was retained to represent the state's coal mining industry. At the time, the industry was embroiled in a bitter fight against industry-ending legislation. Under the firm's management, the Tennessee coal industry defeated the legislative threat and went on to pursue an aggressive pro-coal agenda in Nashville.

At the height of the fracking crisis in 2011 and facing multiple legislative attacks, the Tennessee Oil and Gas Association also retained the lobbying services of Laine Communications. Based on years of experience, the firm convinced the oil and gas industry to voluntarily update state regulations to specifically address fracturing technologies. This proactive approach led to a decrease in bills filed against the industry as well as safeguards for current operations.

Laine Communication was also successful in passing legislation during the 2015 session relative to the Clean Power Plan on behalf of the American Coalition for Clean Coal Electricity (ACCCE). Responding to the overreach by the federal government into the electricity sector, we worked with the House of Representatives and the Senate to provide the state of Tennessee with the ability to fully investigate how such regulations would affect the reliability and cost of electricity within our borders. In other actions for ACCCE, Laine Communications has gathered dozens of legislator signatures on multiple letters opposing similar federal government actions and has maintained year-round, direct communications with legislators on issues of importance to the client.

In addition to our successes as an individual firm, Laine Communications has been a part of some of the most powerful political coalitions in Nashville.

- WOTUS Coalition: A statewide coalition representing nearly every industrial activity in the state, the Waters of the U.S. Coalition used its political influence and media savvy to make a convincing case for why the State of Tennessee should sue the federal government. Ten days after sending a letter to the Attorney General, the state filed a lawsuit to vacate the detrimental regulations.
- 111(d) Coalition: During the 109th General Assembly, Laine Communications led a coalition of producers, suppliers and supporters to pass legislation pushing back on federal regulatory actions. Soliciting this broad spectrum of support prior to introducing legislation eased the path to bill passage and presented a unified voice to legislators.
- The Responsible Water Use Coalition: Formed in 2009, the Responsible Water Use Coalition brought together a group of entities affected by water permitting. Together, we passed landmark legislation defining a "wet weather conveyance" and drastically improved the permitting process for our individual clients.

Collaborating with likeminded industry groups has proven to be an effective strategy that extends the reach of everyone involved and moves the wheels of bureaucracy a little faster. Laine Communications' team building approach will be an asset to the Town of Farragut due to the existing representation and far-reaching implications of the legislation.

CURRENT CLIENTS

It has been our privilege to serve a number of truly remarkable organizations and individuals over the years. Our current clients are the Tennessee Mining Association, the Tennessee Oil and Gas Association, the America's Power and the Town of Farragut.

America's Power (formerly known as the American Coalition for Clean Coal Electricity)

Engaged: 2015 – present

Contact: Paul Bailey, Chief Policy Officer, (202) 459-4818, pbailey@americaspower.org

Description of Work: Working across dozens of states, the American Coalition for Clean Coal Electricity (ACCCE) hired Laine Communications to push through legislation aimed at curbing the federal government overreach. Laine Communications successfully passed the bill into law, one of only two states to achieve ACCCE's legislative goals, and have expanded our relationship with the client into year-round representation. Laine Communications is currently working with America's Power to get the State of Tennessee to become an early implementer of the Affordable Clean Energy rule.

National Mining Association

Engaged: 2013 – 2015

Contact: Jerry Mullins, Director of Government Affairs & Coalitions, (202) 463-2622, jmullins@nma.org

Description of Work: The National Mining Association retained Laine Communications to assist them in forming relationships in Tennessee's executive branch. Over the course of our contract, Laine Communications helped NMA forge relationships with key staff in the Governor's office, the Attorney General's office and environmental regulators.

Tennessee Mining Association

Engaged: 2008 – present

Contact: Mike Rector, Chairman, 865-310-7176, plateaumasonrytn@gmail.com

Description of Work: Laine Communications has represented the Tennessee Mining Association at the federal, state and local level since the association's inception in 2008. During this time, Laine Communications has helped TMA defend the mining industry against legislative assault, including the successful defeat of the "Scenic Vistas Protection Act" for eight consecutive years, retake primary regulation of the coal industry, as well as to strengthen relationships with state and federal regulators.

Tennessee Oil & Gas Association

Engaged: 2010 – present

Contact: Gary Bible, Chairman, 423-215-1857, garybible11@gmail.com

Description of Work: In existence since the 1970s, the Tennessee Oil and Gas Association retained Laine Communications' lobbying service in 2010 during the height of the fracking crisis to defeat multiple bills in the General Assembly, which would have dramatically effected the industry's operations. Over the past nine years, Laine Communications has helped TOGA to re-energize their government relations program, smoothed regulatory hurdles and staunched the flow of detrimental legislation aimed at the industry.

Town of Farragut

Engaged: 2015 – present

Contact: David Smoak, Town Administrator, 865-966-7057, dsmoak@townoffarragut.org

Description of Work: Engaged to represent the Town of Farragut at the legislature, Laine Communications worked throughout the 109th General Assembly to support and oppose legislation affecting the Town. Of note was our work on a bill that would have severely limited the Town's ability to expend state-shared gas tax revenues on non-road related projects. Working with the sponsor of the legislation, the Town of Farragut's representative and other legislative allies, Laine Communications successfully amended the bill to defray the impacts to the Town and were eventually able to defeat the legislation altogether. In 2018, Laine Communications successfully passed legislation, at the Town's direction, to authorize a hotel-motel tax within the municipal boundaries.

As part of our work, we regularly do volunteer lobbying for organizations whose social missions we support. We are currently doing volunteer lobbying for the Tennessee Holocaust Commission. In 2019, Laine Communications was successful in securing an additional $125,000 in recurring state funding to bolster and maintain the important work of the Commission. In the past, we have also volunteered for Renaissance Recovery Group, a treatment center in Knoxville that focuses exclusively on treating pregnant women who struggle with addiction.

THE LAINE COMMUNICATIONS TEAM

With a reputation built on honesty and integrity, Laine Communications offers the experienced, trusted team the Town of Farragut needs to advocate for its issues. Our two full-time lobbyists are devoted to successfully finding a way to achieve our client's goals.

Chuck Laine, President

Chuck Laine has been lobbying the state and federal government for more than 30 years. His reputation as a skillful negotiator, coalition builder and strategic communicator has made Chuck one of the state's top lobbyists. Known for taking on difficult issues, Chuck has overcome enormous odds, secured favorable outcomes and advanced the cause for his clients.

Among Chuck's most notable accomplishments was the successful defeat of an eight-year long effort to outlaw coal mining in Tennessee. Brought on board at the eleventh hour, Chuck saved an industry from certain collapse and positioned it to become a formidable political force in Nashville. In 2012, Chuck was also responsible for negotiating a compromise between the oil and gas industry and environmental activists on new regulations for hydraulic fracturing. These landmark and pro-active regulations have thwarted additional legislative actions and allowed the oil and gas industry to prosper in Tennessee.

Outside of his work at the legislature, Chuck is also active in promoting his community. In addition to offering his lobbying services pro-bono, Chuck has also served on numerous boards, including the East Tennessee Kidney Foundation and the Boys and Girls Club of the Tennessee Valley. A lifelong Rotarian, Chuck is currently a member of the Farragut Rotary Club.

Chuck is a graduate of Lipscomb University and has a degree in economics and business management. An avid outdoorsman, Chuck enjoys a round of golf, a day of fly-fishing or watching a football game with his wife, Susan, their seven children and seven grandchildren.

Chuck's Recent Projects

Chuck uses his extensive experience in government relations and advocacy to serve as the lead strategist for Laine Communication's clients. He develops the primary messaging for client issues and the strategy for ensuring its smooth implementation. Below are some of the recent projects that Chuck has worked on and his primary responsibilities for each:

Tennessee Mining Association – Legislation

Leading the effort to return primary regulation of the coal industry to the state, Chuck spearheaded a strategic plan to solicit support from the counties to the Congress and everyone in between. His persuasive advocacy lead to more than a dozen co-sponsors on the Primacy bill, and he shepherded this highly complex policy initiative through seven legislative committees on its way to full passage by a 94-24 margin in both chambers. Chuck has also served as the spokesperson to the media and in the General Assembly for the Primacy bill.

Tennessee Oil & Gas Association – Regulatory

When the largest oil and gas operator in Tennessee began experiencing problems with permitting, the company called upon Chuck to step in. Bringing together regulators, legislators and the client, Chuck mediated a compromise position to allow the project to move forward.

American Coalition for Clean Coal Electricity – Policy Position

Working to promote clean coal technologies, in line with the client's mission, Chuck recently negotiated language between legislators, electricity utilities and the coal industry to a policy position for the Southern Legislative Conference, a 15-state regional legislative association. Due in large part to Chuck's work in bringing together the various factions, the policy passed unanimously at the SLC's annual conference in July 2016.

PROJECT RESPONSIBILITIES

Chuck will manage the Town of Farragut's lobbying and will lead efforts related to strategy development, will serve as the main point of contact for legislators and elected officials and will be the spokesperson in any committee hearings where the Town's issues are to be discussed. Additionally, Chuck will be in charge of legislative research and tracking, will handle the logistics of meetings and be responsible for the weekly legislative reports to the client.

Joint Venture

Laine Communications will be the sole lobbying firm responsible for representing the Town of Farragut.

Rates

Laine Communications will provide lobbying services for the Town of Farragut for a three-year period. Annual payment for the 2020 and 2021 calendar years will be $25,000 payable in equal quarterly installments of $6,250. In calendar year 2022, annual payment will be $30,000 payable in equal quarterly installments of $7,500. This rate includes the consulting, lobbying, monitoring, communication and event planning services that Laine Communications will undertake for the Town of Farragut.

At each quarterly payment period, the Town of Farragut will receive an invoice from Laine Communications showing the work performed, amount due and date due. Billing inquiries will be promptly answered.

Conclusion

We look forward to continuing to put our years of experience, insider knowledge and strong political relationships to work for the Town of Farragut. By following our proven plan, Laine Communication aims to make the legislative process as simple and straightforward as possible and bring your legislative agenda to fruition.

REPORT TO THE BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN

PREPARED BY: Mark Shipley, Community Development Director

SUBJECT: Ordinance 19-29, an ordinance on second reading to amend the Farragut Municipal Code, Chapter 105, Article 2., Section 105-20 e. and f., concerning construction types and sprinklering for certain size/story structures

BACKGROUND: Ordinance 19-29 includes language that would correct an existing error in the Farragut Municipal Code as it applies to certain building and fire code modifications adopted by the Town in excess of the minimum standards provided in the International Building Code (IBC). Specifically, the modifications in question govern certain buildings in excess of 7,000 gross square feet that would be required to be constructed of Type I, II, III, or IV Construction and sprinklered per Section 903.3 of the IBC. The 7,000 square foot provision and the construction types are provided for in the IBC and are industry recognized applications.

This construction type and sprinklering requirements provided for in the code modifications would also apply to buildings that are more than two stories. The current language includes, in error, the word "not" that is outlined in the following adopted provisions:

(e) The International Building Code is amended by adding the following: Any structure in excess of 7,000 gross square feet per story and not more than two stories shall be of Type I, II, III or IV construction; and

(f) The International Building Code is amended by adding the following: Any structure in excess of 7,000 gross square feet per story and not more than two stories shall be sprinklered per Section 903.3 of the International Building Code.

To be clear and consistent with the intent of the modifications, the language should be stated as the following:

(e) The International Building Code is amended by adding the following: Any structure in excess of 7,000 gross square feet per story or more than two stories shall be of Type I, II, III or IV construction.

(f) The International Building Code is amended by adding the following: Any structure in excess of 7,000 gross square feet per story or more than two stories shall be sprinklered per Section 903.3 of the International Building Code.

RECOMMENDATION: Ordinance 19-29 corrects the error in the current language for both building construction types and buildings required to be sprinklered and was approved on first reading. Since first reading there have been no changes to Ordinance 19-29 and Community Development Director, Mark Shipley, recommends approval of Ordinance 19-29 on second reading.

PROPOSED MOTION: To approve Ordinance 19-29 on second reading.
